Sign up for business support news and information

We have a business register to help provide better information and support to local firms in South Cambridgeshire.

If you have not already signed up, do so now! You will gain access to a range of services from the Council's Business Support Team, including subscription to Open For Business - an e-newsletter sent out every other month.

Joining our business register will ensure you will be the first to know about financing and funding opportunities, contracts and tenders, updates on infrastructure or new developments, business workshops, awards competitions and local business news. It also gives you the opportunity to tell us how we are doing in helping your business to thrive and grow, and the chance to help shape our future services.

To join our business register visit www.scams.gov.uk, click the apply for it button and click on the 'sign up for business support' link.
